Studio dossier

An institutional summary of Outright Mental Inc for procurement, compliance, and reference checks. Plain-language facts; every reference below is verifiable at the source printed beside it.

The entity and its principal

- Legal entity. Outright Mental Inc, a corporation organized in the United States and based in San Francisco, California. Registered mail: 2309 Noriega St. #54, San Francisco, CA 94122.
- Principal. Nick Charney Kaye, Operator. Inventor on U.S. Patent 10,446,126 (adaptive music composition), with 25 years of interactive and film credits - including David Blaine's Drowned Alive website, a U.S. Department of Justice PSA aired on four national networks, and the Stetson 'Made of America' platform.
- Delivery model. A one-person studio. Capacity is capped on purpose - one sprint at a time in the build lane - so committed work is never contended for. The cap is the reliability feature: the studio takes only what it can finish, and finishes what it takes.

What the studio sells

Six lines of work, each with named offers at a stated price. Full detail at outrightmental.com/services/.

- Original games. Fever Tilt on Steam (premium; Early Access November 2026). Produced tournament night, $4,500 per event. Fund and publisher partnerships.
- Adaptive music (XJ). Commercial embed license, tiered by title budget: free under $250k; $4,000-$8,000 per title per year to $2M; custom above. Patent licensing separately.
- Conversation systems. Scenario Pack Commission, $6,500 (2-3 weeks). Private Practice Pilot, $12,000 (6 weeks). Local-first; a regulated-sector one-pager is available.
- Skunkworks sprints. Playable Prototype Sprint, $15,000 (3 weeks). AI Capability Sprint, $9,500 (2 weeks). Agentic SDLC Enablement, $18,000 (4 weeks). Fractional Technical Leadership, $6,000 per month.
- Branded play. Playable Brand Moment, from $25,000. Produced tournament night, $4,500 per event.
- Research & IP. IGA Research Brief, $2,500. IGA Sponsorship, $500 per month. Perspective Engine Pilot, $12,000 (6 weeks). Patent licensing.

Compliance and privacy posture

- Two-vendor stack. The site and its operations depend on exactly two outside providers - Amazon Web Services and Google - and nothing else. No third-party trackers, no embedded SaaS, no CRM, no comment or chat widgets.
- Analytics. Google Analytics only, gated behind consent (Consent Mode v2), anonymized, carrying no personally identifying data, opt-out honored, production only.
- First-party data path. Email and service-intake forms run in the studio's own AWS account. The newsletter carries no tracking pixels and offers one-click unsubscribe.
- Secure contact. PGP-encrypted email is available for sensitive or clandestine matters.
- Full policy. outrightmental.com/privacy.

Insurance

The studio maintains business insurance appropriate to engagement scope. Current certificates of insurance - including additional-insured endorsements where a contract requires them - are provided to your procurement office on request during contracting.

References you can check

- David Blaine / Drowned Alive (2006). Art direction and engineering across a roughly six-year relationship. Memorialized at davidblaine.com/drowned-alive/drowned-website/.
- U.S. Department of Justice, 'Know Where They Go' (2008). Co-director of a national PSA that aired on NBC, CBS, Fox, and Oxygen. The :30 spot: vimeo.com/2842593.
- outrightmental.com (2026). The studio's own storefront, delivered by its open-source SDLC factory as an issue-to-PR-to-merge line. Public pull-request record: github.com/outrightmental/propaganda.
- U.S. Patent 10,446,126. Generative music composition; assignee Outright Mental Inc; granted October 15, 2019. patents.google.com/patent/US10446126.

Accessibility of web deliverables

Web work the studio delivers targets WCAG 2.1 AA: semantic HTML, keyboard operability, sufficient color contrast, text alternatives for meaningful images, and no autoplay or motion a visitor cannot stop. Accessibility issues found in delivered work are treated as defects and fixed; conformance for a specific deliverable is stated per engagement.

Contacts

- General. hi@outrightmental.com
- Press. press@outrightmental.com
- Legal and privacy. legal@outrightmental.com
- Encrypted. PGP key via charneykaye.com/email-privacy.
- Mail. Outright Mental Inc, 2309 Noriega St. #54, San Francisco, CA 94122.

One person reads every message and answers within two business days (48 hours).

> One page for the tender file: a U.S. corporation, one accountable principal, a two-vendor privacy stack, and references you can check without a phone call.

About this document

This dossier summarizes Outright Mental Inc for procurement and reference purposes and is provided for information only. It is not a contract, an offer, a warranty, or legal, tax, or compliance advice. Prices and offers stated here are current at the date of publication and are confirmed in a written proposal. Each reference is verifiable at the source printed beside it. Prepared July 2026.